

A new turistic track round Kujawy - Poland

Written by Przemyslaw Stolarski
Monday, 01 April 2013 19:24

The presentation showed below describes a new touristic track round our region „Kujawy”. The track goes through old mansions, which are pearls of our local architecture. All the places also present a wonderful history of the people who lived in those buildings. Some of those mansions still remain destroyed although there a few renovated and brought back to its past state. The presentation was made by the students of MZS – Publiczne Gimnazjum nr 1 in Radziejów.

The presentation showed below describes a new touristic track round our region „Kujawy”. The track goes through old mansions, which are pearls of our local architecture. All the places also present a wonderful history of the people who lived in those buildings. Some of those mansions still remain destroyed although there a few renovated and brought back to its past state. The presentation was made by the students of MZS – Publiczne Gimnazjum nr 1 in Radziejów.